Books are used in every area of our teaching and are an integral part of Cherry Tree School. Our Theme this term is: Why do people live near volcanoes? During this half term we will be exploring Iceland. Iceland is sometimes called the land of 'Fire and Ice' and also 'The Land of the Midnight sun'. We will be investigating the unusual geographical features of this country and why it has been given these titles. We will also discover it's global location resulting in its weather patterns and unusual phenomena for this area such as the Northern Lights. Much of our English will reflect these fields of study through the book Pugs of the Frozen North by Philip Reeve and Sarah McIntyre.
